F) Miscellaneous - This category includes but is not limited to the following: Vintage Vehicles, Walking Units and Special Feature Units. Units in this category will be judged according to their adherence to the Parade Theme, which is mandatory.

*Any float in this category may not display the name, logo or other identification of any corporation or business unless the appropriate Commercial Unit Fee has been submitted. All banners and signs must be approved by the City of Harrisburg. All units must adhere to the theme.

1. Animal Units including horses, wagon/carriage units, dogs, camels, mule teams, llamas, or any other unusual animal. You must provide a costumed clean-up crew with each animal unit and remove ALL animal waste in the staging/de-staging areas and throughout the parade.
2. Unique/Vintage Vehicle units include motorized or self-propelled “vintage,” “antique”, or “funny cars.” A maximum of 6 vehicles consistent in theme may be submitted. Cars must travel the parade route at least two cars wide. Vehicles must be mechanically sound and able to drive the entire Parade route and manage frequent delays.
3. Walking Units consist of 25 to over 100 choreographed and costumed participants. Sweatshirts or t-shirts with logos, and jeans are not allowed as costuming. Special consideration will be given only if these are part of a well-thought-out, integrated costume design.
4. Special Feature Units are made up of one or more push units, other non-float pieces or mini motorized floats under 8’ wide by 10’ long. For example: a forest of 2’ x 10’ tall trees weaving in and out of performers dressed as Little Red Riding Hood.

G) Fire Departments - This category includes all community and professional fire fighting personnel and equipment: Fire engines, hook and ladder trucks, ambulances and support vehicles both modern and antique. Fire departments are encouraged to enter the parade to show community spirit. This is not a prize category, consequently, costuming and theme presentation is not mandatory, however it is encouraged and is greatly appreciated by the public. No more than 2 vehicles will be accepted from each Fire Department. *Any float, vehicle or banner in this category may not display the name, logo or other identification of any corporation or business unless the appropriate Commercial Unit Fee has been submitted. All banners and signs must be approved by the City of Harrisburg. All units must adhere to the theme.

H) Military - This category includes all branches of military service: active duty personnel, veteran’s organizations and all military equipment. The purpose of this category is to recognize and honor military service; consequently any themes presented in this category may diverge from the overall holiday parade theme. This is not a prize category, however floats and presentations by military personnel, veterans and their families is encouraged. *Any float, vehicle or banner in this category may not display the name, logo or other identification of any corporation or business unless the appropriate Commercial Unit Fee has been submitted. All banners and signs must be approved by the City of Harrisburg.
